

CURRICULUM VITAE

DAVID L. DEISLEY

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

Dave Deisley presently is Associate Corporate Counsel for Barrick Gold Corporation. Mr. Deisley assumed this responsibility in January 2003 after serving as Vice President and Fiscal for Compañía Minera Nevada Ltda. and Barrick Exploraciones Argentina S.A., subsidiaries of Barrick Gold Corporation since April 2000.

Prior to joining Barrick, Mr. Deisley was a shareholder and member of the Natural Resources department at Parsons Behle & Latimer, Utah's largest law firm. At Parsons Behle & Latimer, his practice concentrated on mining, public land, and environmental matters. During his tenure at Parsons Behle & Latimer, Mr. Deisley worked closely with Barrick in the development of the Goldstrike Mine in Nevada and also participated in the environmental assessment of the Pierina Project in Peru. Mr. Deisley joined Parsons Behle & Latimer in 1988 and was elected to be a shareholder in 1990. From 1993 through 1999, Mr. Deisley served as the head of the firm's Natural Resource Department. Prior to that Mr. Deisley chaired the firm's Hiring Committee for two years.

Prior to joining Parsons Behle & Latimer, Mr. Deisley was a member of the litigation department at VanCott, Bagley, Cornwall & McCarthy for four years.

Mr. Deisley was admitted to the Utah State Bar and the United States District Court of the District of Utah in 1983 and the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals in 1986. Following graduation from law school, Mr. Deisley was a judicial clerk for the Honorable David K. Winder, United States District Court for the District of Utah. Prior to attending law school, Mr. Deisley served as a legislative assistant for United States Senator John Heinz (1978-1980). Mr. Deisley's responsibilities included energy, environmental and public works matters. Mr. Deisley is a member of the American Bar Association, the Utah Bar Association, and the Salt Lake County Bar Association. Mr. Deisley was recognized by the Utah Bar Association as the Pro Bono Lawyer of the Year in 1988.

Mr. Deisley is a member of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation; he served as Co-Chair of the Environmental Program for the Forty Second Annual Institute and as a member of the Form 5 Revision Committee. For three years (1996-1999), Mr. Deisley represented the Utah Mining Association on the Board of Trustees of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation. Mr. Deisley also has served as a member of the Foundation's Site Selection and Publications Committees.

PUBLICATIONS

Mr. Deisley co-authored with Susan Ross "Valid Existing Rights: Legal and Practical Realities" for the 44th Annual Institute of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation. Mr. Deisley also addressed the topic of valid existing rights at the 15th Annual Mining & Land Resource Institute in March 1999. Mr. Deisley's presentation was published as "Valid Existing Rights: Legal and Practical Realities," Landman (Nov./Dec. 1999). Mr. Deisley previously authored "Bonding for Reclamation of Oil, Gas and Hard Rock Minerals Development," 37 Rocky Mtn. Min. Law Institute 19-1 (1991) and addressed the topic of "Developments in Reclamation and Bonding of Mining on BLM and Forest Service Lands" at the Fifth Annual Workshop on Developments and Trends in Public Land and Mining sponsored by the American Bar Association's Section of Natural Resources, Energy, and Environmental Law in March 1991.

EDUCATION

Mr. Deisley received an A.B. in Political Science and Economics from Brown University in 1978. Mr. Deisley was awarded a J.D. from the University of Utah College of Law in 1983. Mr. Deisley is a member of the Order of the Coif and was a Leary Scholar and George M. Sutherland Scholarship recipient at the University of Utah College of Law. In addition, he was a member of the Utah Law Review from 1981 through 1983, serving as Executive Editor in 1982-1983.

PERSONAL

Mr. Deisley was born on July 9, 1956 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.